

TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY

Center for Teaching Excellence

Desert Rose

Author Talk and Book Signing

Mary Weijun Collins
Thursday, February 28, 2008

3:00 p.m.
404 Rudder Tower
Texas A&M University

*Co-sponsored by the Institute for Pacific Asia,
the Confucius Institute, Department of History, and the University Writing Center*

An incredible story of courage and survival from a remarkable Chinese woman, Weijun Collins, who labored for 10 years in the Gobi Desert, enduring the betrayals and treachery of the Cultural Revolution.

25 Years of Excellence in Teaching and Learning
1983-2008

CTE SILVER ANNIVERSARY SERIES: These events are sponsored by the Center for Teaching Excellence (CTE) and various Texas A&M academic units to commemorate the CTE's 25 years of commitment to teaching excellence and creative learning environments.

<http://cte.tamu.edu>